

What is Your Legacy Mission?

All of us leave a legacy — the echo of our beliefs, deeds, and values that reverberates beyond our own lifetime through our family and others we touch. A legacy can inspire and influence others who follow you, especially when empowered by perpetual resources made possible through planned giving.

What kind of mission pulls at your heartstrings? Orphaned children? The hungry, the homeless, the sick?

You can arrange to leave a legacy to benefit the world's poor, meeting both their material and spiritual needs for generations to come. Through gift planning, you can provide an income for yourself and an inheritance for your family as well. A planned gift may also be an effective way to lessen the burden of taxes on your family and estate while lessening the burden of poverty on "the least of these" (Matt. 25:40).

We consider every donation as a gift from God, and we consider ourselves honored stewards of those gifts.
